

Sunday Services

Every Sunday Pastor Bob's sermon is taped. If you have missed a service or know of someone who would like a copy of a particular sermon please call RCC at (218) 463-3405. Leave your name, phone number and the date of the sermon you would like to receive. The tapes are $5.00 each and funds go to the RCC Youth Group.

10/31/04

Prelude: RCC Youth Group Band

Hymn: 44 "Blessed Assurance"

Scripture: Matthew 12:43-45

"When an evil spirit comes out of man, it goes through arid places seeking rest and it does not find it. Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. Then it goes and finds seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition is that man is worse off than the first. That is how it will be with this wicked generation."

Hymn: 216 "Cleanse Me"

Sermon: "Living Positively"

Hymn: "Follow, I will Follow Thee"

11/7/04

Prelude

Hymn: 424 "Victory All The Time"

Scripture: Matthew 14:25-33

"During the fourth watch of the night Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. 'It's a ghost,' they said, and cried out in fear. But Jesus immediately said to them: 'Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid.'" "Lord if it is you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water." "Come," he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. "You of little faith," he said, "why did you doubt?" And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

11/14/04

Prelude: Carvaletta's

Hymn: 32 "Oh For A Thousand Tongues"

Scripture: Matthew 25-14-30

"Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. The man who had received the five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained five more. So also, the one with the two talents gained two more. But the man who received the one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who received the five talents brought the other five.

"Master," he said, "You entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more." His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!" The man with the two talents also came. "Master," he said, "You entrusted me with two talents; see I have gained two more." His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness." Then the man who had received the one talent came. "Master," he said, "I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you." His master replied, "You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest. Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents. For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness where there will be weeping and gashing of teeth."

Prelude: Roseanne Sandland

Hymn: 193 "I know Whom I Have Believed"

Scripture: I Kings 22:1-5

"For three years there was no war between Aram and Israel. But in the third year Jehoshaphat kin of Judah went down to see the king of Israel. The king of Israel had said to his officials, "Don't you know that Ramoth Gilead belongs to us and yet we are doing nothing to take it from the king of Aram?" So he said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to fight against Ramoth Gilead?' Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, "First see the counsel of the Lord."

Missionettes

Prims Class

Memory Verse: Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation."

Mark 16:15

The Prims class worked on their "Missions" badge in October. Earning the Mission badge were: Heather Fettig, Brenna Cooper, Faith Olson, Sierra Lorenson, Christina Otto, Angelina Korb, Katelyn Melgaard, Dorothy Alexuk and Kristina Tuttle.

We also went as a group to shop for items for the "Samaritan's Purse Shoebox Gifts" and were able to earn a "Ministry" badge by doing this. Earning this badge were: Heather, Brenna, Sierra, Christina, Katelyn, Dorothy and Kristina. We also wrapped the gifts, made cards, wrote letters for them and sent a picture of our class along with our address-now we hope we get a reply.

Also earning a perfect attendance certificate for October were: Heather, Brenna, Faith, Sierra, Christina, Katelyn, Dorothy and Kristina.

Art is our November and December theme. We are learning there are other types of art besides drawings-such as singing, dancing etc. and we are working on these too. We also made placemats for the Four Seasons Center and some for the North Star Apartments and have enjoyed hand delivering them. By doing this we will earn a "Community" badge. Parents please remember to stop in the RCC Sanctuary the last Wednesday of each month to watch your children receive their badges.

Sunday School Report

RCC Pre-School Sunday School Class

God has blessed us with five fun, loving and eager to learn "Little Lambs". Tanner, Brody, Kay Lene, Chelsa and Jonah. They will be "God's Little Lambs" in this years Christmas Program.

The unit we are starting is on God's Gifts to us. The children will be learning about the gift of Jesus, families and friends. December will focus on Jesus as God's promise to us. It is a delight to spend time with these boys and girls and watch God work in their lives and families.

Merry Christmas to you, and may He bless your life with the gift of a child's love.
Kathy Johnson

RCC has Sunday School every Sunday morning for the entire family. You are welcome to join us!

Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call him

Mary's Little Boy Child

Long time ago in Bethlehem
So the Holy Bible say,
Mary's Boy Child, Jesus Christ,
Was born on Christmas Day.
Hark, now hear the angles sing,
"New King's born today,
And man will live forevermore
"Because of Christmas Day."

While Shepherds watched their flocks by night,
They saw a bright new shining star,
And heard a choir from heaven sing;
The music cam from afar.
Hark, now hear the angles sing,
"New King's born today,
And man will live forevermore
"Because of Christmas Day."

Now Joseph and his wife Mary
Came to Bethlehem that night;
They found no place to bear her Child;
Not a Single room was in sight.
By and by they found a little nook
In a stable all forlorn,
And in a manger cold and dark,
Mary's little Boy Child was born.
Trumpets sound and angles sing;
Listen to what they say,
That man will live forevermore
"Because of Christmas Day."
